When I see stars I think of you then I always pray for you And I know what my heart was made for
To love you Forevermore
when I feel you in my heart
then I hear your voice from your eyes I'll always love you and i'm waiting for you
until the end of time here I am (on my) way to you
I hope that someday you will realize
That I can see forever in your eyes
And I'm wishing my dream will come true
I am lost without you
You are my everything
when I feel you in my heart
then I hear your voice from your eyes
I'll always love you
here I am (on my) way to you
I hope that someday you will realize
That I can see forever in your eyes
And I'm wishing my dream will come true
I am lost without you
You are my everything
Isn't it clear to see You belong with me
We are meant to be
In love eternally My love
here I am on my way to you
I hope that someday you will realize
That I can see forever in your eyes
